

The Incredibly talented duo consisting of Jilly Martin and Ryan Brooks Kelly have become the next must-see act from New England to Nashville. Over the years, they've been featured as support acts for Brad Paisley, Willie Nelson, The Brothers Osborne, Phil Vassar, Bonnie Raitt, Alison Krauss, The Band Perry, Keith Urban, Eric Church, Miranda Lambert, Justin Moore, Jana Kramer and Sara Evans.

Standouts in today's crossover country music scene, Jilly & Ryan's songs bridge the boundary between traditional and new country. Martin has the ability to deliver a story with complete honesty, whether it's a gentle vocal or soaring. Kelly's guitar skills are skillful, and their harmonies blend seamlessly. All of this, and charm... makes Martin and Kelly a must-see duo!

Some Highlight Performances in the past two years:

- 2017: Performed main stage at the SOLD OUT Country 102.5 Street Party with Kip Moore, Chris Janson, and A Thousand Horses
- Opened Main stage for Dwight Yoakam and Alabama at the Bank of NH Pavilion
- 2018: Opened for Phil Vassar, The Oak Ridge Boys, and Montgomery Gentry
- Invited to join the Oak Ridge Boys on Stage to perform "Bobby Sue"
- 2019: Opened the show for 101.7 the Bull's City Winery Uncorked with Travis Denning, Abby Anderson, and Tyler Rich
- Opened Main Stage for Rodney Atkins at the Cabot Theater
- September 2019 Outlaw Festival with Willie Nelson, Brothers Osborne, Bonnie Raitt and Alison Krauss

Jilly and Ryan's decision to join their musical talents and musical influences was the right one, no doubt. They compliment each other on stage, and in person. There's just the right amount of humble and swagger, of know-how and a desire to know more... in their music and performances. This partnership has resulted in Martin and Kelly being one of the country's most sought-after country acts.
